(If you require more space, please attach additional paperwork to your application when submitted)

If you are selected, you will have the opportunity to coach some of the most talented players in Region 32. The region will be entrusting in you the care and welfare of these players in addition to the long-term welfare of our region's soccer program. The region expects the coach and players will remain members of AYSO Region 65 sharing their experiences and skills acquired while playing in the Extra program with other coaches and players in the region. It is further understood that if the coach elects to leave the region and take players to another program, the coach will be ineligible from any future participation in Region 65 secondary programs.

Return Completed Application by April 12, 2019 to Extra Program Coordinator: Wade Stoner at EXTRA@AYSO32.ORG
